DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to Applicant's amendment filed June 6, 2008. Claims 39, 41, 44, 45, 50, 52, 55, 56, 58, and 59 have been amended. Claims 70-155 have been newly added. By previous amendments, claims 1-38, 40, 46-49, 57, and 60-69 have been canceled. Claims 39, 41-45-50-56, 58-59, 70-155 are currently pending in this case.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
- I. Claims 39, 41-44, 70-71, 79-85, drawn to a method and apparatus for transmitting digital data, where data is transmitted along with identification information in a header, classified in class 705, subclass 57.
 - II. Claims 45, 50, 72-73, and 86-92, drawn to a method and apparatus for recording digital data, where data is recorded along with identification information in a header, classified in class 360, subclass 60.
 - III. Claims 51-56, 58-59, 74-78, and 93-99, drawn to a method and apparatus for processing digital data, where data is processed along with identification information in a header, classified in class 380, subclass 201.
 - IV. Claims 100-114, drawn to drawn to a method and apparatus for transmitting digital data, where data is transmitted without a header, classified in class 705, subclass 500.

- V. Claims 116-131, drawn to drawn to a method and apparatus for recording digital data, where data is recorded without a header, classified in class 360, subclass 32.
 - VI. Claims 132-155, drawn to drawn to a method and apparatus for processing digital data, where data is processed without a header, classified in class 713, subclass 189.
3. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:
4. Inventions IV and I are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because group IV data does not require a header. The subcombination has separate utility such as transmitting data with a header.
5. Inventions V and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because group V data does not require a header. The subcombination has separate utility such as recording data with a header.

6. Inventions VI and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because group VI data does not require a header. The subcombination has separate utility such as processing data with a header.

7. The examiner has required restriction between combination and subcombination inventions. Where applicant elects a subcombination, and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

8. Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

- (a) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification;
- (b) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;
- (c) the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);
- (d) the prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;
- (e) the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

9. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

10. The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

11. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

12. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

13. A telephone call was attempted to Esther H. Chong, reg. no. 40,953, on or about 30 September 2008 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

14. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to CRISTINA OWEN SHERR whose telephone number is (571)272-6711. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:30-5:00 Monday through Friday.

15. If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Calvin L. Hewitt, II can be reached on (571)272-6709. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
